Effective Negotiation Skills

Overview

Whether it's obtaining resources for a project, funding a new initiative or establishing a supply chain for a new product or service, negotiation is inevitably at the heart of the process. But few people understand the structures, techniques and approaches available to them as they seek to positively influence an outcome.

Sales and other people need to be effective at negotiating whether that be with providers, colleagues or if they negotiate with professional buyers. What strategies and actions can you deploy to enhance the outcomes of your negotiations with clients, internal departments, colleagues and other stakeholders?

When you are engaged in sales and other negotiations your skill as a negotiator may prevent losses and increase the gains for you and your organisation. In order to achieve this you will look for ways to prepare effectively; understand the needs and interests of all parties; conclude better agreements as a result of being creative and strike deals that deliver more value?

Through a combination of sound theory and practical business negotiation experience the workshop will ensure that you are able to: achieve negotiations that create value; avoid missing opportunities; turn challenging relationships into rewarding relationships and counter negotiation tactics.

Aim

The workshop will explore what negotiation is and your skills as a negotiator. It will identify the steps of negotiating success and the essential rules of negotiation. You will come away with some top negotiating tips and have had the chance to practice them.
